

September 2020 Meeting

- All CFUW Aurora Newmarket general meetings will be via video conference from September 2020 to May 2021.
- Our September Books and Bottles event has been cancelled due to increased numbers of new cases of COVID-19 in Ontario.
- Valarie Hume has arranged for Soup-Pa in Newmarket to make packaged dinners for the clients at INN from the Cold, on October 16. She will be picking them up and delivering them, keeping our club's commitment to the shelter. Way to go, Valarie.
- Continue to collect your toiletries. Information will be submitted in the newsletter on how we will be dealing with them this year.

- Leah den Bok's website - <https://www.humanizingthehomeless.ca/books>
- The Homeless Hub, a major resource on homelessness research in Canada: www.homelesshub.ca
- The Toronto Memory Project - <https://www.torontomemoryprogram.com>
- October 3, 2020 9:30 am - 12 pm - Zoom Speakers Series is free to CFUW members - register by October 1, 2020 on the Ontario CFUW website.
They are going to have three speakers that will address elder care in Ontario and how those most vulnerable have been put at risk. The presentations will be followed by a panel discussion. NOTE - CFUW National put forth two emergency resolutions pertaining to Long Term Care and they will be discussed during this presentation
- October 6, 2020 - National CFUW has a Zoom on gun control in Canada. Preregistration required.

Tuesday, October 27, 2020 @ 7:30 pm - Ellin Bessner, Richmond Hill author and journalist of Hidden Heroines - The Untold Story of how Canada's Jewish Women Helped Win the Second World War. Wear orange and black or a Halloween costume!