

2nd Place – Finding Integrity – Noah VanHemert

Noah is a Grade 7 student who is homeschooled in Bradford. This is the second year he has entered the CFUW contest; his story last year was “The Brothers Break Free”. He received an invitation to enter this year’s contest, and his mother convinced him to try once again. The hard work paid off as his story advanced through three rounds of judging and placed second in the elementary category. Noah loves reading fantasy, science fiction, and mystery novels. He also plays baseball and the clarinet. He wants to be a math teacher. Noah plans on entering the contest again next year.
